LEGACY ROBE HONOREE

We're proud to announce that the Young Frankenstein Legacy Robe honoree is Zeph Lodwick - Congratulations!

The Legacy Robe is a tradition in which a cast member with the most Broadway credits receives a robe on the opening night of a Broadway musical. Before the curtain rises, everyone associated with the play gathers on stage for the ceremony and the new recipient is announced and presented with the robe that's decorated with mementos and drawings from the season's past shows. They then put on the robe and circle the stage counter-clockwise three times as everyone touches the robe for good luck, and then make their way throughout the theatre to continue bringing good luck.

For Coastal Rep Kids' Theatre (CRKT) productions we've morphed the tradition to honor the performer from the full cast who embodies the top qualities of a musical theatre cast member. This show's honoree has been a model cast member: always prepared and knows the material, arrives to rehearsal on-time, is enthusiastic, respectful to teachers and cast mates, and takes direction and enhances it with his own creative interpretation.
